

Dependency Status Appeal Form

Student Name: _____ UID#: _____

The federal government expects you and your family to bear primary responsibility for financing your education. However, the federal government recognizes exceptions to this rule. Students may appeal based on a severe situation that exists. Only severe situations will be approved. Please note that parental unwillingness or inability to contribute is not considered a severe situation.

If you feel your situation warrants an appeal, please carefully read all instructions, complete all sections of this form, and provide the required documentation. The response time of your appeal decision will be contingent upon your cooperation with requests for additional documentation (if necessary). Typically, you will receive a written response by mail within 2-3 weeks.

Documentation Required:

1. Personal Statement: On a separate sheet of paper, tell us in your own words why you should be considered an independent student. Be complete and specific. Explain the circumstances leading to your independence from your family, and if you are receiving support from friends or relatives, you must describe the nature of amount of the support and how you came to receive it. Be assured that all information you provide will be held in the strictest confidence.
2. Provide notarized and signed statements from at least TWO third-party references who are not family members which verify the severe family circumstances you described in your personal statement. Third-party references include clergy members, guidance counselors, teachers, professors, doctors, family counselors, mental health professionals, and law enforcement officers.
3. A copy of your current IRS Tax Transcript and all W-2 forms for the 12-month period you are appealing. If you have not yet filed or will not file, please provide copies of your W-2 forms from all jobs and an estimated adjusted gross income.
4. Copies of your pay stubs from the past four weeks for all jobs which you currently hold. Be sure to indicate the pay period for each (one week, two weeks, one month, etc). If you are not working, please include in your personal statement an explanation of how you are supporting yourself. Please include who is providing support and how much they are providing.
5. A copy of your lease, property title, or other written housing agreement. If you do not have a written housing agreement, you must provide a notarized affidavit from your landlord naming the property that you live in and the amount you pay for rent.
6. Copies of your car's registration and your auto insurance policy.
7. Copy of your health insurance policy.
